

GEP Selected by Eliant Inventory Solutions as Exclusive Provider of Supply Chain and Procurement Consulting, Software and Services

Eliant, founded by Athene and Apollo, enables global companies to optimize working capital, improve supply chain operations and resiliency, and deliver value through customized, GEP-technology enabled solutions

CLARK, NJ, January 25, 2022 -- GEP, a leading provider of procurement and supply chain software and services to Fortune 500 and Global 2000 enterprises worldwide, announced it has joined Eliant Inventory Solutions LP (“Eliant”) — recently established by Apollo, a leading alternative asset manager, with its strategic partner, Athene — to provide global companies with a dynamic new solutions platform for greater inventory control, increased working capital and resilient supply chain capabilities. GEP was selected to provide supply chain and procurement consulting, software and managed services.

“Global supply chains are broken, beset by disruptions, risk, price volatility, and antiquated software, which ties up valuable working capital and resources for global companies,” explained Jagadish Turimella GEP’s chief operating officer and co-founder. “We’re excited to join Eliant, a truly innovative, trailblazing company that pairs its global financing experience and strength with our consulting and software under one umbrella for enterprises to reinvent their global supply chains.”

Eliant is structured to own a wide range of inventory at an efficient cost of capital and use GEP’s AI-power software platform to effectively manage its clients’ high-volume and complex global supply chains.

“Eliant allows companies to use its innovative digital platform to free up working capital tied to inventory sitting in warehouses and ports around the world,” stated David Doran vice president of consulting, GEP. “By joining forces with Eliant, we’re providing global companies with a single, fit-for-purpose solution to deliver greater resiliency, working capital efficiency and overall value to their organization.”

GEP’s collaboration with Eliant will allow customers access customized solutions designed to provide greater digital innovation, impact and value. Today, GEP SOFTWARE is used in 120 countries and sets the industry standard, transforming how some of the world’s leading companies create greater value from their spend. GEP SOFTWARE encompasses GEP SMART™, recently named the world’s best procurement software for the second year in a row, and GEP NEXXE™, the next-generation, cloud-native supply chain unified platform. It enables global organizations to drive optimum efficiency, agility, visibility and actionable intelligence into all procurement and supply chain functions, while eliminating burdensome infrastructure and support costs to achieve maximum ROI.
